

Vancouver
MAGAZINE

eating & drinking guide

2007

900+
REVIEWS
100 NEW RESTAURANTS

BEST BARS
FOR COOL DRINKS AND HOT FUN

BEST WINES
UNDER $20
UNDER $10

BEST ETHNIC EAT GLOBALLY

BEST VIEWS
WHERE TO SEE
AND BE SEEN

PRICE $4.95

La Cucina del Diavolo

Passion and pride runs deep in owners Colin MacDonald and Lela Selmo. From the breakfast sandwich—a Russian baguette and fine quality cheeses, Parma ham and organic greens—to a delicate, exquisite lemon and chocolate ganache tart, all foods are made on premise, surprising for such a tiny place. MacDonald bakes light, flaky scones in small batches throughout the day—the cinnamon and raisin variety brings loyal customers from afar. Selmo concocts sweet sins using top ingredients such as Gianduja chocolate. 1701 Powell St., East Side, 604-677-1119, lacucinadeldiavolo.com. $ 